PRESS RELEASE - PRESS RELEASE - PRESS RELEASE - PRESS RELEASE

Add-X Biotech AB signs BSP Inter Supplies Co Ltd. as an exclusive distributor in Thailand for AddiFlex® products.

The Swedish bio-tech company Add-X Biotech AB has signed another distribution partner to its existing network - this time with the Thai company BSP Inter Supplies Co Ltd. They will be the exclusive distributor of all different products of AddiFlex® in Thailand.

Markus Jörgensen, CEO, Add-X Biotech AB: "This is a very interesting new partner to us and another big step in establishing AddiFlex in the Asian market. This is a market where I expect to see a growing interest in our product for the upcoming years. The market in Thailand is a growing one and to be able to work with BSP will be a great opportunity for us to accomplish our strivings for the Asia market"

Bundit Phakatanasakul, Managing Director, BSP Inter Supplier: "It is our pleasure to work with Add-X Biotech AB who is well known in the global market with worldwide network. With product quality and Add-X cooperative, I strongly believe that Addiflex will be significantly growing in the Asian market, where awareness of green environment is currently increasing. "
